EUROPEAN ULTIMATE CHAMPIONSHIPS 2015 DAILY NEWSLETTER

MONDAY, JULY 27TH

LET THE GAMES BEGIN !!

These 2015 European Ultimate Championships in Copenhagen start with the opening game between Sweden Open and Denmark Open. Andreas Magnusson and Jonathan Sjögren, Sweden's playing coaches told us following : "To prepare us for EUC we had training camps this spring and summer. On these camps we focused on seeing the strength in every player and how we could use it to make the strongest manage to do so, we will win this game. But most of all, playing for such a huge crowd, we have to really enjoy the moment ! We have quite a young team without a lot of international experience, but we know that our more qualified players can guide us the way to a medal. How high we will climb on the medal podium is difficult to say. It's always hard to predict the final standings in a big European tournament.

All teams are well prepared and will give it all, to get to the gold medal. Of course there are teams that have made it before like Germany, Switzerland, GB and of course Sweden, those countries wouldn't give you the highest odds. But there are always some surprises and we think this year Russia might be one of them."

team as possible. It is a great honour to play the opening game against the host nation AND our neighbours, and for us an excellent way to start the tournament. This is a Nordic derby that will be very inspiring for all of us, hopefully for the spectators too. There is no special recipe to beat the Danish side. We just have to play our own game and trust in the preparations we had. We are confident that if we
